

LITHUANIA BUSINESS COLLEGE

DESCRIPTION OF STUDY MODULE (FOR ERASMUS+ STUDENTS)

PRACTICAL BUSINESS LAW

Volume of subject	6.0 ECTS
Lecturer in charge	Lecturer Rūta Zubrickaitė
Annotation	To develop students' knowledge and legal thinking, practical skills in analysing and assessing situations arising from business relations, to help students understand the basics of business law, to teach how to resolve typical conflict situations arising from business relations, how to independently use legislative sources and apply them in practice; to present the legal precedent of Lithuanian courts.
Topics	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Business law as a scientific concept. The concept of business law as a science, its subject matter and methods. Subjects of business law. • Concept of natural and legal person. • Establishment of legal persons. Participants of a legal person. • Restructuring, reorganisation and liquidation of a legal person. • Establishment of a company. Establishment of a company with full civil trust, their management and the reliability of obligations. • Legal regulation of business activities. Civil liability of business entities. Concept and types of civil liability. Specific features of the civil liability of the manager of a legal entity. Specific features of civil liability of participants in a legal entity. • Forms of legal persons in the European Union. • Mergers of business entities. • Representation of business entities. • Disputes between business entities and their resolution.
Procedure for assessment of knowledge and competences	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ✓ 20 percent – preparation for seminars; ✓ 20 percent – control work; ✓ 60 percent – final exam.